

Praying regularly is one type of spiritual practice. A spiritual practice helps us feel the spirit of love and see what is mysterious and wonderful about the world around us. A daily spiritual practice helps us find a quiet place inside. Even things like listening to music, painting, and gardening can be part of a spiritual practice. Can you think of a spiritual practice you would like to do?

